

About the Speaker

NICHOLAS M. TESTA, JR., CFPIM, CSCP, CIRM, Jonah

Master Instructor for APICS Lean Enterprise Workshop Series

Master Instructor for APICS Certified Supply Chain Professional (CSCP) Series

Master Instructor for APICS Certified Production and Inventory Management (CPIM) Series

Master Instructor for the APICS Principles of Operations Management Series

Nick is a founder and CEO of Acuity Consulting, Inc. Clients hire Acuity, www.acuityconsult.com, when they wish to repair or improve the use of enterprise, supply chain, and project systems that are performing below expectations. Acuity applies a wide range of tools drawn from the APICS Body of Knowledge, Project Management, Theory of Constraints, Lean, and Six Sigma.

As Vice President of Operations and other senior positions, Nick successfully implemented these practices in industry. He has also consulted and led consulting teams at the Vice President level enabling client companies to improve performance and profits, while cutting costs and operating expenses.

In 2006 Nick served as President and Chairman of APICS, The Association for Operations Management. He has also chaired the APICS Annual International Conference, been President and VP Education of the Orange County Chapter, and served in a wide variety of international, national, and local positions. Nick currently serves as the President Elect for the Orange County Chapter.

He is a college and post graduate instructor in technical and management subjects, and speaks frequently at professional and management meetings.

Nick holds a BS in Physics from the University of Santa Clara, MBA from the University of Southern California, APICS's CFPIM, CSCP, and CIRM, a CSUF Certificate in Production and Inventory Control, and a Jonah from the Goldratt Institute.

Acuity Consulting, Inc.

714-657-0037

www.acuityconsult.com